

MONUMENT IN HONOR OF WOMEN OF THE SOUTH

Designed by Miss Belle Kinney of Nashville---Replica to Be Erected in Each Southern State.

ATLANTA, Aug. 16.—Be fitting in nobility of conception and beauty of execution the subject it is to commemorate, the design for the monument to the women of the Lost Cause has been completed. It is the work of a Dixie girl, Miss Belle Kinney of Nashville, Tenn., and has been accepted by several States. It is probable that all the States which left the Union in the Civil War will adopt the design and that replicas of the monument will be placed in the capitols of each.

The design for the proposed monument is very beautiful and elevating. The central figure, of heroic size, is the goddess of fame. At her right the reclining figure delicately featured, beautiful, but with an expression of exquisite sadness, represents the self-sacrificing Southern women of the war time. Fame is represented as placing a wreath upon the Southern woman's head, while she supports, at her left, a dying and emaciated Confederate soldier, to whom the Southern woman is extending, even in death, the palm of victory.

The design is such that it readily lends itself to reproduction either in marble or bronze. A year or more ago the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Sons of Confederate Veterans decided upon the erection of these monuments in every State capitol in Dixie. The work was to have been done by an Italian sculptor. When his design was submitted at the late Confederate reunion in Memphis it raised a storm of protests. The artist had pictured the Southern woman as a militant and Amazonian figure, carrying in one hand a sword and in the other the banner of the Lost Cause. This conception was as foreign to the gentle, suffering and patient woman of the Southland as those who loved her head known her, that the design was rejected by an overwhelming vote. The angered artist decided to submit another and Miss Kinney was appealed to. Tennessee has appropriated $2,500 through the Daughters and Sons of the Confederacy for a bronze cast of the design. Other States are raising funds for the purpose and it is believed that by fall each of the former Confederate States will have followed suit.

Miss Kinney, the artist, is but 22 years of age and is already a sculptor of more than national fame. She was recently awarded the contract for a heroic statue of the late Senator Edward W. Carmack, of Tennessee, killed by Cooper. When but a child she received a prize at the Centennial in Nashville for a bust of her father. She received her education in art at the Art Institute at Chicago and later studied abroad. She was awarded the contract for twenty Igorrote figures at the Field Museum and has attracted a great deal of attention in art circles throughout the world.

BONNIE MELROSE.

Death of Miss Laure Aycock—Interesting Games of Baseball.

MELROSE, Fla., Aug. 17.—Our quiet little town was saddened on Wednesday, Aug. 11, by the news of the death of Miss Laurie Aycock, who formerly lived here and by her sweet disposition won the friendship of everyone with whom she came in contact. She was a member of the Methodist Church and an earnest worker in the Sunday school. The sympathy of the community goes out to her parents in their sad bereavement. The body was brought here for burial, accompanied by her father, Mr. W. B. Aycock, an uncle, Mr. E. Aycock of North Carolina, Dr. and Mrs. Tomlinson of Lake Butler and Mr. B. King of Valdosta. The services at the cemetery were conducted by Rev. T. L. Z. Barr, pastor of the Methodist church.

Misses Flora and Helen McRae of Evinston are with their uncle, A. A. McRae, for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. von Noszky left last week for North Carolina for a few weeks' outing.

Dr. W. C. Barnett and wife of Micanopy recently visited his mother, Mrs. M. J. Barnett.

Miss May Barnett and Mr. H. Barnett left yesterday morning for Micanopy and Mollendale respectively.

C. P. Huffman, who has not been well for several weeks, is again confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rogers and children returned Sunday to their home in Live Oak.

The local baseball team defeated the Grandin team in a double-header here, Friday. Score—first game, 16 to 6 in favor of local team. Batteries, Lee and Walker; Dominice and Black; time of game 1:55. Umpire—Griner. Second game—16 to 6 in favor of locals. Batteries, Yearwood and Walker; Dominice and Black. Umpire—Griner. The game was called in the third inning on account of darkness. The visitors had a good team, but we note that some of them need practice. The pitcher made a brave start with his little, easy roller, but the locals soon found it and began to place the ball almost where they wished.

A Weakling

Is the only way to describe the poor child that is afflicted with worms. No matter how much or how often it eats, the worms get all the nourishment from the food—the child gets practically none. White's Cream Vermifuge gets rid of the worms quickly, easily and with no bad after effects. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

MARRIED ON SUNDAY.

Two Popular Gainesville Young People Join Future Destinies.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coleclough, on Sunday evening at 5 o'clock, Mr. James E. Ledbetter and Miss Lena, the eldest daughter, were quietly married, Rev. F. R. Bridges performing the ceremony.

Only a few of the immediate relatives of the bride were present and the affair, which had been kept very quiet, came as a great surprise to their many friends throughout the city.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coleclough and was born and reared in this city, where she has won friends by her many kind and generous acts and a cheerful disposition.

The groom has been a resident of Gainesville for the past two years, being employed by Phillip Miller, and has made a host of friends by his genial and pleasant manners.

They are at present located in the Ledbetter cottage, where they will make their home for the present. The Sun, with other friends extends to them congratulations.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Continues to Improve.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Geo. R. Ellis returned yesterday from a short visit to his brother, T. H. Ellis, Sr., who is now in the hospital in Jacksonville. He states that the operation was most successful and that his brother is highly elated over the fact that his vision has been restored in the eye operated upon. He is still wearing the dark cloth, however, and will not be permitted to come in contact with the outside light for some days to come.

Take Notice.

All persons are recommended to take Foley's Kidney Remedy for back ache, rheumatism, and kidney and bladder trouble. It will quickly correct urinary irregularities, which, if neglected, may develop into a serious illness. It will restore health and strength. Do not neglect signs of kidney or bladder trouble and risk Bright's disease or diabetes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Witnessed Cloud Burst.

Dr. J. H. Alderman, John Chesnut and James Chesnut formed a party who visited Alachua last Sunday to take a look at the magnificent farm of John Chesnut. While they were there a cloud burst occurred, which compelled them to remain over, for a place that they had crossed in the forenoon was deep enough after the rain to swim a horse, and there was no way out except to go via Newberry which was done at an early hour Monday morning.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. It's not disposition—it's the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Pay Car Arrives.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:
The pay car over the A. C. L. railway arrived yesterday at noon and distributed the cash among its many employes in the city. They pay out here every month a great amount of money, but nothing to compare with what it was a few years since.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. Burdock Blood Bitters conquers dyspepsia every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight, and good health.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY.

Two Negroes Use Knives on Saturday Night at Paradise.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:
Two negroes became engaged in a fight at Paradise on Saturday night, when both of them were badly cut to pieces.

Nothing could be learned of the affair at the sheriff's office, but parties who informed the reporter stated that both negroes were seriously cut, and the row started over a "skin" game, but the informant did not know their names.
